

This musical score consists of eight staves, all in common time (C). The first five staves and the last two staves contain whole rests in every measure. The sixth staff is the only one with musical notation, featuring a complex rhythmic pattern of vertical lines and stems. This pattern is repeated in every measure. At the beginning of each measure in the sixth staff, there is a 'g' note and a '1' below it, indicating a specific rhythmic value or count.
